

Kicking off the New Year with a 21-Day First Love Fast

Pursing Deep Intimacy and Full Partnership with Jesus

January 6 – 26, 2020

Thesis: This week we will cover the “why” of fasting. I want us to catch a vision of why God is calling us to fast and to hear the invitation of the Lord.

Next week we will cover the “how and what” of fasting. We will talk about the practical details of the 21-Day First Love Fast.

Text: Matthew 6:16-18; 9:14-15

Vision casting: The “why” of fasting

1. Why are we kicking off the New Year with a 21-Day First Love Fast?
 - a. We believe the Lord is asking us to seek him intentionally as a part of our First Love emphasis.
 - i. We have been in a season of returning to our First Love.
 - ii. The Lord has put in us a hunger to know him deeply and to join him in his mission in this earth.
 - iii. In truth, we are still in process. None of us have come to the deep intimacy and full partnership with the Lord which he desires and which we long for.
 - iv. So, we want to invite you to join us in kicking off the New Year with a 21-Day First Love Fast.
 - v. Our focus in this fast is on Pursing Deep Intimacy and Full Partnership with Jesus.
 - vi. The dates for our fast are January 6 – 26, 2020.
 - b. We are seeking to respond to the invitation of the Lord by starting the new year with a focus on the Lord and what he has for us as a church.
 - i. Throughout this past year, your staff leadership team has felt the Lord calling us to a 21-day fast to start the new year.
 - ii. So, we have been processing this invitation to fast for quite a while.
 - c. Fasting is a spiritual practice that positions us to seek the Lord, to hunger for the Lord, and to draw near to God.
 - i. Fasting is a way to say “yes” to God and “no” to other things.
 - ii. And, as Becky Gressett, our Children’s Pastor said: “I am praying for the year 2020 to be a year of focus, vision, and clarity.”
 - d. Fasting is about embracing voluntary weakness.

- i. Prayer is about humbling myself, expressing dependence upon the Lord. Fasting, too, is an expression of humility and dependence.
- ii. In prayer and fasting, I seek to say “no” to relying on myself to say “yes” to being fully dependent on his strength.
- iii. We are seeking to lean into our Bridegroom King as Joshua Rushing taught us from the Song of Songs.
 1. Who is that coming up from the wilderness, leaning on her beloved? (Song of Songs 8:5).
 2. The Beloved / Bridegroom is speaking. “Who is this coming up out of the wilderness, out of their dark night, and leaning on their beloved?”
 3. We don’t stand on our own strength as the mature bride; rather we willingly lean into the Lord.
 4. Leaning on our Bridegroom King is an expression of love and confidence. It is an expression of hope in the Lord.
- iv. According to Scripture, God reveals his strength and grace in and through our weakness.
 1. But he said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness." Therefore I will boast all the more gladly about my weaknesses, so that Christ's power may rest on me. 10 That is why, for Christ's sake, I delight in weaknesses, in insults, in hardships, in persecutions, in difficulties. For when I am weak, then I am strong (2 Corinthians 12:9-10 NIV).
 2. In our weakness, his strength is revealed.
 3. If I am not weak, I don't need grace.
 4. Joshua Rushing say, “Fasting puts a bullseye on our hearts for the grace of God to come.”
- e. Fasting is an expression of humility.
 - i. In Isaiah 58:5, the Lord recognizes that fasting is meant to be an expression of humility.
 1. However, he rebukes his people because their fasting is not a fast unto humble dependence and obedience to God.
 2. Their actions in the way they treat others and treat the Sabbath show the opposite spirit of dependence and humility upon God.
 3. The people said that they wanted to acknowledge God’s ways and wanted to draw near to God, but on their fast day and on the Sabbath they’re doing what they wanted.

- ii. Here is how the Lord describes true humility of heart and action. If my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then will I hear from heaven and will forgive their sin and will heal their land (2 Chronicles 7:14 NIV).
 - 1. We are called to humble ourselves. One of the most humbling things we can do is to pray. When we pray, we seek his face. When we connect with the Lord and come near to him, it is easy to see how far we have fallen and to turn from our wicked ways.
 - 2. True expressions of humility, like prayer with fasting, honor God and prepare the way for him to move in and through our lives, as 2 Chronicles 14 and Isaiah 58 go on to say.
- iii. And we know that God gives grace to the humble, but opposes the proud and self-sufficient (James 4:6; 1 Peter 5:5-7).
 - 1. Young men, in the same way be submissive to those who are older. All of you, clothe yourselves with humility toward one another, because, "God opposes the proud but gives grace to the humble." 6 Humble yourselves, therefore, under God's mighty hand, that he may lift you up in due time. 7 Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you (1 Peter 5:5-7 NIV).
- f. An Illustration: Fasting and the river (from Joshua Rushing)
 - i. Fasting gets us from the bank into the river.
 - ii. Fasting doesn't make the river flow.
 - iii. Fasting gets us into the river and into the flow of what God is doing. It is positional.
- 2. Why we fast: The Bridegroom Fast: Encountering God's Love (Matthew 9:14-15)
 - a. Fasting is part of the normal Christian life. It is often thought of as an optional discipline.
 - i. Jesus said, "When you fast," implying that it should occur in the regular course of a disciple's life.
 - ii. 17 When you fast...18 your Father who sees in secret will reward you openly (Matthew 6:17-18).
 - b. Jesus emphasized that the Father will reward fasting. This proclamation makes fasting important.
 - i. Jesus called us to fast because He knows that its rewards will far outweigh its difficulties.
 - ii. Some of the rewards are external, as our circumstances are touched by God's power.

- iii. Some of our rewards are internal, as our hearts encounter Him.
- iv. We fast both to walk in more of God's power to change the world, and to encounter more of His heart to change our heart!
- a. Jesus spoke of the apostles fasting out of their desire to encounter Him. We call this the "Bridegroom fast." It is motivated by desire for Jesus, rather than by desire for more power in ministry or to be delivered from a personal crisis, etc. This was a new paradigm of fasting.
 - i. 14 Then the disciples of John came to Him, saying, "Why do we and the Pharisees fast often, but Your disciples do not fast?" 15 And Jesus said to them, "Can the friends of the Bridegroom mourn as long as the Bridegroom is with them? But the days will come when the Bridegroom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast" (Matthew 9:14-15).
- b. The disciples enjoyed Jesus' presence, feeling loved by Him and rejoicing in their relationship with Him. Jesus told them that the joy they experienced in His nearness would change to mourning, or longing, when He was taken from them by His death— when the joy of His immediate presence had been taken from them, they would be heartsick. Then they would fast!
- c. John the Baptist's disciples came to Jesus with a sincere question. They were confused and troubled by the lack of fasting among Jesus' disciples, because John taught his disciples to fast often.
 - i. Jesus answered with a question, "Can the friends of the Bridegroom mourn, as long as the Bridegroom is with them?"
 - ii. Jesus was referring to His death on the cross when He said that the days were coming when He, the Bridegroom God, would be taken from them.
 - iii. Then, His disciples would fast with the same consistency and intensity that John's disciples did. Their fasting would flow out of desire to encounter the Bridegroom God. This is fasting for greater intimacy with God and for spiritual renewal.
- d. We do not fast to motivate God to pay attention to us, but to receive the affection He already has for us—it is not to move His heart, but our own. Fasting lessens our spiritual dullness.
- e. Jesus established the New Covenant by His death and resurrection, in which the Spirit comes and dwells in every believer. Then, fasting took on a whole new dimension, because the indwelling Spirit revealed the depths of God to the disciples (1 Corinthians 2:10; Hebrews 10:19-22).
- f. A mourning heart is fiercely discontent and desperately hungry for God—this is the Bridegroom fast. We refuse to accept the current state of our spiritual barrenness and dullness.

- g. The Bridegroom fast is primarily centered on desire—both understanding God's desire for us and awakening our desire for Him. When we fast, God changes our desires and increases our desire for Him. Once we taste the nearness of God's presence, we cannot live without more of Him.
- h. Fasting positions our hearts to be expanded; as we encounter Jesus as our Bridegroom God, our spiritual capacity to receive from Him increases. Fasting before our Bridegroom God is a catalyst to increase the depth and the measure to which we receive from the Lord. We receive greater measures of revelation at an accelerated pace, and with a deeper impact on our hearts.
- i. The idea that fasting changes us internally is a new idea to some. Fasting results in tenderizing our hearts. When this occurs, we make different choices, which lead to different outcomes in the places we go to and the people we meet. When our values are different, it affects who we marry, how we raise children, how we spend our money, and the focus of our ministry.
- j. Fasting restrains our physical pleasure, but enhances our spiritual pleasure. Our greatest pleasure comes from feasting on the person of Jesus. Fasting is an exchange: we abstain from legitimate things to "feast" on God's Word and prayer, whereby we experience more of His grace.
- k. Five rewards of the Bridegroom Fast:
 - i. Fasting tenderizes our hearts so that we feel God's presence more.
 - ii. Fasting changes our desires and enlarges our desire for righteousness (Hebrews 1:9).
 - iii. Fasting increases our understanding of the Word and receiving prophetic dreams.
 - iv. Fasting makes our body healthier and changes what we desire to eat and drink.
 - v. Fasting strengthens our sense of identity—as sons of God, before the Father, and as the Bride, before the Son. Our identity becomes rooted in knowing God's affection for us.
- l. Fasting is always voluntary. Though leaders may invite others to join in a corporate fast, with a specific goal in mind, and for a specific time, fasting can never be forced or mandated.
- m. The level at which a person engages in fasting from food should be determined according to age and physical limitations. Those with a physical disability, illness, or eating disorder should not fast, except under the supervision of a physician. Minors are discouraged from fasting food. Minors who desire to fast are encouraged to consider non- food abstentions, such as TV, movies, Internet, video games, and other entertainment. The Bible never calls children to fast food.

Ministry Time: seeking the Lord and drawing near to the Lord through worship and communion.

1. We want to come to the Lord's Table today to meet with the Lord and to ask God for grace.
2. Let's ask the Lord in a time of worship and communion to help us to feel what he feels for us. Let's ask the Lord for grace to hear his voice speaking to us about fasting. Let's ask for the grace to respond the invitation today to fast. And, let's ask for the grace to enter into a 21-Day First Love Fast.
